From the Institute Chair...

Welcome to these two performances of 'Austrian Encounters'.

In this second event in the Australian Boys Choir's exciting travel-themed 2022 concert season, we are delighted to be collaborating with the outstanding Australian Romantic & Classical Orchestra, led in today's performance by Co-Artistic Director Rachael Beesley.

It is the first time the singers of the Australian Boys Choral Institute have partnered with an ensemble of period instruments – an aspect which is sure to add a very special dimension to today's program of music by Mozart and fraternal composers Joseph and Michael Haydn.

This program also marks the ABCI's debut on the Australian Digital Concert Hall platform. We are thrilled to be sharing music with audiences across Australia and around the world, and extend our appreciation to directors Adele Schonhardt and Chris Howlett and their team.

Whether attending in-person in Geelong or Melbourne, or streaming this weekend's offerings online, thank you for joining us as we travel back to the 18th century Austro-Hungarian empire.

Do watch out for details of our remaining concerts for the year as we continue our musical travels to locations as diverse as New Zealand, outback Australia and the Baltic States.

Professor Stephen Duffy
Board Chair, ABCI

From the Artistic Director...

It is often said that the only composer all musicians agree upon is Mozart. The sheer genius and inventiveness that shines through his music has delighted audiences for generations.

Today's concert includes two works by this most highly respected of classical composers and commences with a Litany to the Virgin Mary composed when Mozart was only 15 years of age (actually around the same age as many of the performers on stage this afternoon!)

The rest of our offerings include works by the Haydn brothers, paying homage to the relationship between all three composers who knew and respected one another greatly.

The music of Michael Haydn is worthy of particular mention and today we present just one example by this extraordinary composer. This is certainly the work's first Australian performance, although we are quite confident that it has not been performed anywhere in the world since it was written some 250 years ago. I think you will be pleasantly surprised.

It is simply a joy for the ABCI to be collaborating with the world-class Australian Romantic & Classical Orchestra. Exploring this repertoire as it would have originally been performed is a fascinating process, and we invite you to enter into this unique sound world with us today.

Nicholas Dinopoulos
Artistic Director, ABCI

The Vocal Consort

"The Vocal Consort sang superbly...a rich, seamless blend"
The New York Times.

Originally formed in 1984 to complement the work of the Australian Boys Choir, The Vocal Consort has gone on to establish a distinct musical life of its own as arguably the country's finest all-male vocal ensemble.

Seeking to develop new formats and audience for vocal performance, and setting a standard rarely achieved by other Australian groups, it makes numerous concert, soirée and festival appearances each year and continues to earn superlatives from critics and audiences alike.

Most members of the Consort gained their early training through the Australian Boys Choir and now provide inspiring role models for the boys in a repertoire ranging from plainchant and sacred polyphony through to various contemporary styles.

The Vocal Consort has toured internationally eight times encompassing tours across Europe, Asia and North America. They regularly perform throughout regional Australia, and in 2008 were a featured ensemble of the Hobart Festival of Voices.

TVC has released three CDs to date, the most recent of which was launched in April 2012.

Australian Romantic & Classical Orchestra

"ARCO musicians perform, creating an all-encompassing atmosphere in their concerts that is infectious. And, especially at this time, the relief of joy, hope, and new beginnings was palpable."
Night Writes Sydney

Australian Romantic & Classical Orchestra specialises in historically informed performance of late 18th- to early 20th-century orchestral and chamber music repertoire on period instruments, and is at the forefront of the historical performance scene, staying abreast with the latest research and developments around the world by collaborating with key guest musicians and musicologists. Under the co-artistic direction of Rachael Beesley and Nicole van Bruggen, the orchestra has been highly praised as offering "intelligent and warm performances, demonstrating the importance of historically informed musicianship and showcasing the impact of period instruments with gut strings." (ArtsHub, 2020)

Founded under the artistic direction of renowned musician and educator, the late Richard Gill AO, and already a dynamic influence on the Australian music scene, the orchestra's twin goals of performance and education are delivered through live concerts in Australia's capital cities and in metropolitan and regional centres, collaborations with guest ensembles, radio broadcasts, innovative music education programs and specialist online resources. Bringing together leading Australian and international exponents, the Australian Romantic & Classical Orchestra brings historical insights and new perspectives to masterpieces from the Classical and Romantic periods.

The orchestra's unique education series, Voyage of Musical Discovery is equal parts concert and demonstration, and features exceptional guest musicians and ensembles and recently composed Australian works. Voyage programs provide listeners with live examples and explanations of the compositional similarities between historical and contemporary works.

The Young Mannheim Symphonists youth orchestra program is designed to give students and emerging musicians the opportunity to discover for themselves the magic of approaching music with historical performance style.
